SAPELE WOOD

Used in the construction of fine furniture and cabinet work. Decorative veneers, plywood, joinery, flooring and paneling.

CANARY WOOD

Can be almost rainbow colored with dark orange streaks along with natural orange, yellow, and brown colorations. Common uses are speakers, cabinets and furniture.

ZEBRA WOOD

Frequently quarter sawn and used as a decorative veneer.

LACE WOOD

Has a very conspicuous flecking that gives this wood its namesake. The wood itself is a reddish brown with grey or light brown rays which result in a lace pattern when quarter sawn.

PURPLE HEART

AFRICAN PADAUK

Moderately hard and heavy, medium texture with large pores. Saws and planes easily to a very smooth surface.

JATOBA

Also called Brazilian Cherry. Hard, very heavy and very tough. The grain is commonly interlocked with a medium course texture. Popular for furniture pieces.

WENGA

Course texture with a straight grain, hard and heavy. Works fairly well with machine tools but has a high blunting effect on cutting edges. Turns well.
